THE HEIGHT OF Excellence

Congratulations to every member and club for all you have done to “Experience Excellence” in this 2016-2017 Toastmasters year!

I hope that you will continue in the coming year to put Excellence high on the list of what you want to achieve for yourself and your club. As one of our four Core Values, Excellence is at the center of our organization’s philosophy. And our District’s mission is to “support all clubs in achieving excellence.”

It has been a great honor for me to be your district director this past year, the high point of six years of service to District 25’s members and clubs. As I fulfilled my responsibilities during that time - whether it was at officer training, at a conference, or at a club meeting - I particularly enjoyed meeting you, our members. I loved to ask you about how your club was doing, to hear you give a speech, and to talk about your goals as a Toastmaster. Finally, I cannot tell you how thrilled I have been to see your names in this program, and in the programs of past Awards Banquets, and how thrilled I will be when I see your accomplishments that are yet to come.

My very best regards,

Jodie Sanders, DTM
District Director 2016-2017

Welcome fellow Toastmaster friends!

Tonight we gather in the spirit of joy and celebration as we look back on this year of achievements. We pause and reflect on those individuals and clubs who seized the opportunities to STRETCH, REACH out and ACHIEVE goals in speaking and leadership. As we accomplish each of these, we build habits and “Experience Excellence.” For, as Aristotle said, “We are what we repeatedly do. Excellence is not an act. It’s a habit.” For those who have accomplished this habit of excellence, we honor and recognize your efforts and successes.

We salute the District Officers—Distinguished Toastmasters Jodie Sanders, Greg Pick and Robi Ley—for a fabulous, fun and fantastic year full of wonderful contests, conferences and events. We give our District Director, Jodie Sanders, special congratulations and thanks for her unwavering enthusiasm and efforts to inspire and motivate each member of District 25 to Experience Excellence.

District officers, club officers, clubs and individual members this night is for YOU! Sit back, celebrate and put your hands together as we recognize the many achievements of our Toastmasters’ year. Tonight we culminate the year with a climb to the HEIGHT OF Excellence! ENJOY!

Heartily,

Debra Sanford
Awards Banquet Chair 2016-2017
